So, what is a Power Breakfast?

By Jo Schmeiser
CCGM Executive Director

One of the many events sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce for Greater Milford are Power Breakfasts.

A Power Breakfast is another opportunity to learn about issues that affect business development, employers and employees. They are educational seminars which are geared at starting your day in a positive, motivational way to help your business grow.

Plus, you can expect a wonderful breakfast buffet which will help you begin the day in a healthy, energetic manner.

Some of the past Power Breakfast topics have included information concerning investments, safety on the job, insurance, and how to work well with others.

All of the Power Breakfasts will be held at the Heritage in Milford, located on Rt. 113 just north of the Executive Restaurant.

The next Power Breakfast is scheduled from 8-9 a.m. on March 26.

Marilyn Magness, from the Delmarva Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM), along with representatives from the Delaware State Board of Legislative Liaisons, the Delmarva Legislative Liaisons and the Labor Law Enforcement will be discussing the several Human Resources issues & compliances Milford businesses need to recognize and address.

There are two Power Breakfasts set for April. The first will be from 7:30-9 a.m. April 16. Eric Doroshow, Esq., with Doroshow, Pasquale, Krawitz & Bhaya Law Firm will be providing guests with information concerning legal issues small businesses are often faced with. His insight will help keep businesses out of courtroom, so they can focus on the boardroom.

The other April Power Breakfast will be hosted by Gwen Guerke, from the Milford Chronicle. Gwen is going to "teach" attendees the proper way to send a press release, and other information to The Milford Chronicle. This seminar will include instructions on how to send photos as well as articles. It is being held from 7:30-9 a.m. April 30.

There is a usually a $7 fee for the Power Breakfast, which includes an All-U-Can-Eat Buffet, the seminar and another wonderful opportunity to network, however you may want to call to confirm the price.
