Dupont

Karen A. Fletcher is vice president -- DuPont Investor and has worked in a variety of capacities at DuPont including research and development, operations and technical service assignments, technical marketing, product management and global sales. She is also a Six Sigma champion.

Cynthia C. Green is vice president and general manager, DuPont Fluoroproducts. She was one of the first three Six Sigma Champions in DuPont, and then held a variety of business management positions. She is a member of SWE (Society of Women Engineers) and is active in the United Way of Delaware.

Linda B. West is vice president and general manager, DuPont Imaging Technologies. She has held several business leadership and Finance function roles including vice president and general auditor with responsibility as chief ethics and compliance officer. She has served as the treasurer on the Board of the YMCA of Delaware.

Accenture

Denise Attarian is a SAP Technical Lead who is managing the delivery efforts for some of Accenture's largest clients. In addition to her role, Denise has provided direction within Accenture's Philadelphia/Wilmington Outreach; a community which she founded six years ago. Her passion and role model behavior has inspired the group to sponsor fund raising efforts, organize donation drives and provide services to many local and national level groups including: YWCA Delaware, Ronald McDonald House and the victims of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita just to name a few.

Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP

Sarah E Diluzio Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP has selected Sarah because of her ongoing commitment to community and pro bono activities. Sarah serves on the Board of Directors of Goodwill of Delaware and Delaware County, Inc., and she has generously shared her legal talents as a volunteer attorney for the Office of the Child Advocate and Delaware Volunteer Legal Services. The firm commends

Sarah for her dedication to pro bono work and service to the community.

TCIM

TCIM Services celebrates the accomplishments of all for our dedicated women in diverse roles. Their contributions are critical to our continued business success and community involvement. We proudly salute you and say thank you. Each of you are heroines.

Doroshow, Pasquale, Krawitz & Bhaya

Nahir Loyola moved to Delaware from Puerto Rico in 1981 as a widow with three young children. Within a few years she found her way to Doroshow Pasquale, and has been their bookkeeper and translator for the past 20 years. Nahir's commitment goes well beyond the numbers and the law firm to her community, especially as a voice and advocate for Hispanic families who are new to Wilmington.

YWCA Delaware

Diana Patrick is being honored for her dedication to the YWCA mission. For 15 years, she has been dedicated to empowering women and girls and helping them achieve their fullest potential!

Valero Delaware City Refinery

Valero Delaware City Refinery honors all of its many dedicated, talented women employees, whose daily contributions play a significant role in the company's continued success.

Chase Card Services

Melissa Gonville Chase Card Services is proud to nominate Melissa, a Technology Sr. Director at Chase, based on her continuous dedication to advancing mentoring processes and technology tools for the women of Chase Card Services. She chairs numerous committees to lead implementation of networking and mentoring initiatives, including Networking Breakfasts, guest speakers and training sessions, and a unique mentoring opportunity called Leadership Circles. In addition, Melissa dedicates her time and energy to community efforts leading Adopt a Family for the Chase Technology department and participation in Habitat for Humanity.
